

ANNOUNCEMENT

Bally's Intralot announces Executive leadership changes

March 4, 2026

Bally's Intralot S.A. announces that its executive Mr. Nikos Nikolakopoulos, President, Lotteries and Executive Board Member, will step down from his Executive role effective 16 March 2026. He will continue to serve as Non-Executive Board Member.

Mr. Chrysostomos Sfatos, who will continue to serve as Chief Operating Officer and Executive Board Member, will additionally assume the role of President, Lotteries ensuring the company's commitment to strategic growth, operational excellence, and long-term value creation.

Mr. Robeson Reeves, CEO and Executive Board Member of Bally's Intralot, stated: "I would like to thank Nikos for his dedication and invaluable contribution to the company's growth and the wider lottery community ecosystem over the past 20 years, and I count on his continuing support. The new leadership team is committed to building on his legacy and advancing our strategic priorities to ensure a strong outlook."