ANNOUNCEMENT

Bally’s Intralot secures £261.78 million of new senior secured term financing

July 27, 2026

Bally’s Intralot S.A. (ATSE: BYLOT) announces to the investing public that it has signed, through its indirectly wholly-owned subsidiary Intralot Capital Luxembourg S.A., as borrower, a senior secured sterling term facilities agreement with institutional lenders in an aggregate principal amount of £261,780,105 (approximately €306 million euro equivalent) (the "New Term Financing"). The New Term Financing will be drawn in two term loan tranches with a tenor of three years and is guaranteed and secured on a senior basis by members of the Bally's Intralot Group in line with the Group’s existing senior secured financing arrangements.

Bally's Intralot intends to apply the proceeds of the New Term Financing, for general corporate and working capital purposes of the Group, including its Acquisitions plans and towards the refinancing of other indebtedness. The availability and utilisation of the New Term Financing are subject to the satisfaction of customary conditions.

The New Term Financing forms part of the Bally's Intralot Group’s existing senior secured capital structure.
