INTRALOT Extends Contract with New Hampshire Lottery Commission to Provide Sports Betting Solutions

November 29th, 2019

INTRALOT is pleased to announce that its U.S. subsidiary INTRALOT Inc., has signed a contract extension to provide its Sports Betting solutions to the New Hampshire Lottery Commission. INTRALOT will offer sports betting starting in early 2020 at over 1,300 existing lottery retailers in New Hampshire.

"INTRALOT has delivered innovative lottery products and solutions to the New Hampshire Lottery Commission since it became a valued customer of ours in 2010," said Nikos Nikolakopoulos, INTRALOT Group Deputy CEO. "The newly introduced sports betting offering to the State gives us the opportunity to deploy our next generation solutions and in-field expertise ensuring an unparalleled player experience for its citizens".

"Through this contract amendment to provide our leading sports betting technology, we will power the New Hampshire Lottery and will expand its well-established operation with new and exciting entertainment options while attracting a new demographic of players," said Byron Boothe, INTRALOT Inc., Interim CEO. "We look forward to continue working together with the Lottery to maximize sales growth and ensure increased returns in a socially responsible way for the State and its citizens."
